

Our Lady Queen of Apostles Parish, Stafford [A Parish of the Brisbane North West Deanery] Vision: "To follow the example of Jesus by serving others. Sixth Sunday of Easter (Year C) 25th/26th May, 2019

Resurrection follows the Cross (Easter after Good Friday). Over the Easter Season, we can meditate on the "Stations of the Cross" that Pope Francis prayed on Good Friday. It was composed by Sr Eugenia Bonetti who has given her life to saving victims of human trafficking.

Eighth Station Jesus meets the women

"Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children" (Lk 23:28)

Meditation:

The social, economic and political situation of migrants and the victims of human trafficking challenges and disturbs us. We must have the courage, as Pope Francis firmly maintains, to denounce human trafficking as a crime against humanity. All of us, and Christians in particular, must come to realize that we are all responsible for the problem, and that all of us can and must be part of the solution. All of us, but above all we women, are challenged to be courageous. Courageous in knowing how to see and take action, as individuals and as a community. Only by being united in our poverty can we make it a great treasure, capable of changing people's approach and alleviating humanity's sufferings. The poor, the foreigner, the other, must not be seen as an enemy to be rejected and resisted, but as a brother or a sister to be welcomed and assisted. They are not a problem, but a precious resource for our fortified citadels, where prosperity and consumption fail to alleviate our growing weariness and fatigue.

Prayer:

Lord, teach us to see with your eyes, with that welcoming and merciful gaze with which you see our limitations and our fears. Help us to imitate you in how we regard different ideas, behaviours and points of view. Help us to realize that we are part of the same human family, and to find bold new ways of accepting diversity and working together to build communities, families, parishes and civil society.

Let us pray together and say: "Help us to share in the suffering of others":

those grieving the death of loved ones;

those who find it hard to ask for help and comfort;

those who have experienced oppression and violence.

Ninth Station Jesus falls for the third time

"He was oppressed and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter" (Is 53:7)

Meditation:

Lord, you fell a third time, exhausted and humiliated, beneath the weight of your cross. Like all those girls forced onto the streets by groups of traffickers in human slavery. Like you, they cannot hold up under the exhaustion and humiliation of seeing their young bodies manipulated, abused and ruined, together with their hope and dreams. Those young women feel divided in two: sought out and used, while at the same time rejected and condemned by a society that conveniently ignores this kind of exploitation, the fruit of its throwaway culture. On one of many nights spent on streets of Rome, I looked for a young woman recently arrived in Italy. Not seeing her in her group, I kept calling out her name: "Mercy!" In the darkness, I caught sight of her curled up and half asleep at the edge of the street. When she heard me calling, she awoke and said she couldn't go on. "I can't take it any more", she kept repeating. I thought of her mother. If she knew what had happened to her daughter, she would burst into tears.

Prayer:

Lord, how many times have you asked us this disturbing question: "Where is your brother? Where is your sister?" How many times have you reminded us that their heartbreaking cry rises up to you? Help us to share the sufferings of all those treated as refuse. It is all too easy to condemn people and difficult situations that offend our false sense of decency. It is less easy to accept our responsibilities as individuals, as governments, and as Christian communities.

Let us pray together and say: "Lord, give us the strength and courage to repudiate":

the exploitation and humiliation faced by many young people;

the indifference and silence of many Christians;

unjust laws lacking in humanity and solidarity.

ongratulations to LIA PARTLETT who, at

don't know where I got this but I reckon it's a great reflection! - Denis.

"I would like to conclude this chapter with a story related to suffering. Everyone loves a great story. That's why Jesus told so many. It was a tradition of every wise rabbi. The story I want to share is related to a quote from Malachi 3: "He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver."

This verse puzzled some ladies in a Bible study class, so they need to discover its meaning. One of the ladies visited a silversmith and watched him at work. He held a piece of silver over the fire and heated ii. He explained that to refine silver you need to hold it over the hottest part of the fire so it would burn away all the impurities. The woman thought about 'is and how God might hold us in such a hot spot: 'He sits as a refiner and purifier of silver." She asked the artisan if it was true he had to sit there in front of the fire the whole time the silver was being purified. He not only said yes, hut he explained that he had to keep his eyes on that silver the whole time. If the silver staved in the fire too long, it would be destroyed. The woman reflected for a moment then asked, 'How do you know when the silver is fully refined?" "When I can see my image in it," he replied."
